2014 Annual General Meeting and Conference*

November, 2013

CFUW Members,

Winter is nipping at our heels and before you know it we will be deluged with holiday happenings and family events not to mention skiing, skating, curling and the many winter activities that Canada has to offer.

Before all of those wonderful events occur we at CFUW K-W would like to share some of the excitement that we are feeling about the upcoming June 19-22, 2014 AGM that we are hosting here in Kitchener-Waterloo.

The Kitchener-Waterloo area has something for every visitor from interesting geographic formations, to shopping and theatre. The Tour Committee that has planned visits to Stratford to see the costume department and enjoy plays that range from Shakespeare to a musical. There are other tours that feature walking around ice age treasures and visiting and learning about new and innovative technology. The committee has even scheduled a High Tea at a prestigious country estate for those who want to kick back and enjoy. Please visit the website at the bottom of this letter to see all of the amazing tours that are being offered.

The Social Committee has organized a wonderful Oktoberfest evening in keeping with the German history of this area. Uncle Hans, the official mascot of Oktoberfest, has been invited to join us to give that added touch of authenticity to the evening. Great entertainment has been planned for the Oktoberfest evening and everyone is sure to have a fun filled time.

The gift boutique and silent auction should prove to be highlights and there are many wonderful items on which to bid, most of them easily transportable.

There will be a pictorial exhibit on display which will feature Women in History and their roles in WWII. This exhibit also features influential women from the Kitchener Waterloo area and is fascinating.

The Program Committee has lined up some wonderful speakers and you can access this information on the website listed at the bottom of this letter.

This is just an overview of all the exciting events that have been planned for your visit to our CFUW AGM June 19-22, 2014. Our theme for the AGM is "Our Emerging Mosaic – notre mosaïque émergente". Please visit the website below.
