Capital Carillon

April General Meeting

DATE: Monday, April 2, 2018
 TIME: 7:30 p.m.
 PLACE: Riverside United Church/
 Anglican Church of the Resurrection,
 3191 Riverside Drive,
 Ottawa, ON K1V 8N8
 SPEAKER: Rebecca Bromwich, Director,
 Graduate Diploma in Conflict
 Resolution Program (GDCR),
 Carleton University
 TOPIC: Suggestions for More
 Equal Criminal Justice:
 Look Upstream to Child Welfare Law

Rebecca Bromwich

Across Canada, the justice system is struggling. The consequences can be court delays, sometimes resulting in the dismissal of serious charges. Moreover, there are a vast number of people in pre-trial detention, often more than those incarcerated. In addition, certain segments of the population are overrepresented in the justice system, most particularly indigenous and racialized people and those coming out of the child welfare system.

Dr. Rebecca Bromwich believes that one way of dealing with the overburdened justice system is for the provinces and territories to reform child welfare laws. She was a member of the Ontario branch of the Child and Youth Law Section Executive working

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

HEATHER LEWIS

I hope that when you are reading this message spring will be in the air, crocuses will be out, you will be looking in your closet for colourful clothes and starting to think about our Musical Lunch on April 25th. (See page 6.)

Were you able to make it to our Scholarship Meeting and our Tea and Drama? They were wonderful events. You will see some reporting on them in this Newsletter, but you can also see more photos on our members' Facebook page (named Helen McLean for our first President). If you are not already on that page, it is worth getting on. Our VP Communications, Lizz Wilfert, would be happy to show you how to connect with it. In addition to Club news, she posts interesting articles and events.

Our speaker for April 2nd (7:30 p.m., Riverside Church) is Rebecca Bromwich, Director, Graduate Diploma in Conflict Resolution, Carleton University. This distinguished lawyer and scholar will be speaking on Suggestions for More Equal Criminal Justice: Look Upstream to Child Welfare Law. You can see what some of her students say about her on our CFUW-Ottawa webpage.

April 2nd is also our Resolutions Meeting. Our Issues and Advocacy group will present their recommendations to you on the Provincial and National Resolutions. The Provincial Resolution is printed in this month's Carillon and the National Resolutions were printed in last month's Carillon.

When I was a member of CFUW

Victoria and lamenting the fact that there was not much interest in Resolutions, one of my friends took me to task saying, "Heather, many of our members are living alone and others are dealing with difficult husbands. For them, the most important aspect of the Club is the opportunity for socializing." Wow! I certainly get that. Nonetheless, I hope that, as educated women, you will want to engage in advocacy and be well-informed on the issues our Clubs care about. Please come out on April 2nd to support our Issues and Advocacy group in their efforts.

It's not too soon to be thinking about registering for our AGM on May 8th. (See page 6.) You will get a good dinner and have an opportunity for socializing. Do you remember the Pink Rose Surprise Prize from last year? You will find out who this year's winner is. The Nominations Committee will report on to repeal and replace the current Child and Family Services Act.

Dr. Bromwich is the Director of the Graduate Diploma in Conflict Resolution Program in the Department of Law and Legal Studies at Carleton University as well as an acting Crown Attorney. She is a member of the Alternative Dispute Resolution Institute of Ontario and has a Certificate from the Program on Negotiation Master Class at Harvard University as well as a Graduate Certificate in Women’s Studies from the University of Cincinnati.

Dr. Bromwich was in private practice for several years before becoming the first-ever Ph.D. graduate from the Carleton University Department of Law and Legal Studies in 2015. She taught for several years in the Faculties of Law at the University of Ottawa and Western. Student reviews often use the word “awesome” and call her caring, passionate, funny and super interesting. The media often call upon her for her expert views.

CFUW-Ottawa General Meetings are open to the public and free of charge. Invite your family and friends to join us.

Capital Carillon is published monthly from October to May, except for January.

the nominees for the coming year’s Board of Directors.

You received an e-blast containing the National Club President’s Message of February 21, 2018. In it were two financial motions you will need to vote on at our AGM. One is a CFUW dues increase motion and the other is a CFUW

Winnipeg motion on a differentiated CFUW dues structure. You can find a copy of this message at cfuw-ottawa.org under News and Announcements. Our Board is meeting on March 26th and will give you its recommendation on these motions.

Welcome to spring!

Scholarship Evening

The CFUW-Ottawa Scholarship Trust Fund Committee hosted its annual Scholarship Evening on Monday March 5, 2018. The evening began with a welcome by Heather Lewis, President of CFUW-Ottawa and an introduction to the Scholarship event by Margaret Haines, Scholarship Trust Fund Chair. Eighteen of our twenty-three scholarship winners were in attendance. About 100 people attended the event including the scholarship winners' families and friends, and many of our CFUW-Ottawa members. All the scholarship winners were delighted to be there and grateful for our financial support.

The evening continued with a recital by three of our scholarship winners. Anita Pari, winner of the Earl B. Connell Scholarship at Carleton University, played Franz Schubert's Piano Impromptu in G flat Major, Op. 90 No. 3. Abigail Sanchez Rojas, winner of the Barbara Newbegin Award in Music at the University of Ottawa, performed Joseph Haydn's Piano Variations in F Minor Hob XVII:6. This performance was followed by Angelique Francis, winner of the Helen Nininger Scholarship in Music at Carleton University. Angelique sang her original song titled "Help Me be Kind." She was accompanied by her father, Kiran, on drums, and her sisters, Kira and Kharincia, on saxophone and vocals.

Following the recital, the scholarship certificates were given out by the CFUW-Ottawa President, Heather Lewis. Individual and group photos were then taken by Lizz Wilfert.

A reception followed. CFUW-Ottawa members, students and their families and friends all stayed to mingle and chat. Many members said how impressed they were with the young women we were supporting and that they thoroughly enjoyed the evening.

Many thanks go to Patricia O'Flaherty and Margaret Haines who organized the event, Heather Lewis who helped with logistics and to all the Scholarship Trust Fund Trustees as well as Mary Broderick who assisted with the reception.

We look forward to another wonderful Scholarship Evening next year.

Jean Chapman,
Secretary, Scholarship Trust Fund

ONTARIO COUNCIL

Draft CFUW Ontario Council Resolution

Housing for all through sustainable and mixed urban development in Ontario

RESOLVED that the Ontario Council of the Canadian Federation of University Women (CFUW OC) urge the Government of Ontario and municipal governments to cooperate through laws, bylaws and policies to guarantee that plans for redevelopment and new development for housing ensure that mixed income housing, including social housing, be included in urban communities.

RESOLVED that the Ontario Council of the Canadian Federation of University Women (CFUW OC) urge the Government of Ontario and municipal governments, in cooperation with First Nations, to ensure that as urban areas expand beyond current boundaries, urban growth is sustainable, protecting parks, crown land, First Nation communities, river basins and wetlands, farm lands and designated green space, such as Ontario's Greenbelt.

International Women’s Day Victorian Tea and Drama

The CFUW Clubs of Ottawa, Nepean and Kanata presented a highly successful afternoon of drama and Victorian tea on March 10. Enthusiastic actors gave us a fresh look at how Canada was formed from the point of view of the women in the lives of the Fathers of Confederation in Joan Conrod’s play Women Vote Indirect.

Many members helped make the day a success. There were six CFUW-Ottawa members in the cast: Patricia Bays as the mother of George-Étienne Cartier; Kringen Henein as Mercy Haines Coles; Nancy Simmons-Wright as Hortense Cartier, wife of George-Étienne Cartier; Joan Tyler as Agnes Bernard MacDonald; and, Sandra Murray as the narrator. Also, Norm Lewis, husband of Heather Lewis, played Sir John A. Lynne Bond’s granddaughters were also in the troupe: Laura Hnatiw played Chipman Tilley and Catherine Hnatiw played played Gennie the maid. Judy Chaplin was in the choir, as was Jean Chapman. Besides the wonderful actors and choir, the team made sure all details were perfect from the well-organized welcome to the cakes and brownies to the beautiful set up in the church hall to the pouring of the tea itself.

We welcomed as special guests Anita Vandenbeld MP for Ottawa West-Nepean and her mother, Nathalie Des Rosiers, MPP for Ottawa-Vanier and Ontario Minister of Natural Resources and Forestry and Marianne Wilkinson, Ottawa Councillor for Kanata North. All in all, over 200 CFUW members and friends had a grand time. CFUW-Ottawa’s share of the profits will go to Cornerstone, a women’s shelter. Congratulations to all!

History Group Takes a Cruise

Each year, the History Study Group undertakes the study of a specific theme drawn from the immense treasure trove of history. This year, the Group decided to take an imaginary cruise of the Mediterranean Sea. Members were invited to choose a city bordering on the sea, depending upon personal ties and interests, often including past visits. They then research its past and make a presentation to the Group. Each month the Group was treated to two such presentations providing an overview of the forces of history affecting the city and its region. This led to stimulating discussions as we contrasted the impact of history on various cities and populations. We also enjoyed continuing the discussion and socializing over coffee and treats between presentations.

Do consider joining us next year! Our convenor, Ivana Caccia, would be glad to give you all the information you need.

A Birthday Party for a Centenarian!

Marny Emmerson celebrated her 100th birthday on January 26th, 2018 at an afternoon birthday party held at her home in the Duke of Devonshire retirement Residence, joined by members of her family, and some of her many friends from CFUW-Ottawa.

Marny was born in Abernethy, Saskatchewan, and was educated there and in Truro, Nova Scotia, home of her maternal grandparents. She graduated from the University of Saskatchewan with her Bachelor of Arts.

Marny came to Ottawa in 1943 to work at the Department of Trade and Commerce; her office in the historic West Block. Later she was posted to Paris as a Defence Production attaché in the Canadian delegation to NATO, where she was often the only woman officer at NATO meetings.

Marny was a very active member of CFUW-Ottawa and served as our club President in 1971-72. Over the years Marny has made many friends and was a regular attendee at our meetings and events. It was a pleasure to join fellow members to celebrate her reaching this milestone.

We all wish her a very Happy Birthday!

Update on Advocacy

Brief on Bill C-65 An Act to amend the Canada Labour Code (harassment and violence)

CFUW-National has submitted a brief on Bill C-65, a bill tackling the issue of harassment and violence in federally regulated workplaces. CFUW raised four concerns to strengthen Bill C-65:

1. addressing the fear for reprisal and financial barriers to reporting;
2. creating an organizational and cultural shift;
3. ensuring adequate funding and human resources for training; and,
4. adopting comprehensive definitions of harassment and violence.
